Pushfor Announces Revocation of Cease Trade Order and
Management Cease Trade Order

Surrey B.C., June 22, 2021 — Pushfor Investments Inc. ("Pushfor" or the "Company") (CSE:PUSH) is pleased to announce that on June 21, 2021, the British Columbia Securities Commission (the "BCSC") issued a full revocation of the Company's failure-to-file cease trade order (the "CTO"). The BCSC imposed the CTO on the Company on April 20, 2021 for failure to file the Company's audited annual financial statements, the management's discussion and analysis ("MD&A") and the related certifications for the year ended September 30, 2020 (collectively, the "Annual Filings"), as well as the interim financial statements, MD&A and related certifications for the periods ended December 31, 2020 and March 31, 2021 (collectively, the "Interim Filings").

The Company has now filed the Annual Filings and the Interim Filings, and is in full compliance with the continuous disclosure requirements of the BCSC. Both the Annual Filings and the Interim Filings can be found on the Company's SEDAR profile at www.sedar.com.

The revocation of the CTO constitutes a "material change" as defined by National Instrument 51-102 – Continuous Disclosure Obligations. As such, the Company has filed a material change report in connection with this news release. The Company is coordinating with the Canadian Securities Exchange (the "CSE") with respect to reinstatement of trading of the Company's common shares on the CSE.
